

Harper Family: Q3 2026 Client Review Packet

Prepared for the client meeting on Friday, October 9, 2026. Statement date: September 30, 2026.

1. Client profile

Item	Detail
Clients	Daniel Harper (52) and Maya Harper (49)
Household income	Salary plus profit from Harper Design Studio LLC (Maya, owner)
Risk tolerance	Moderate
Goal 1	Retire in 2035 with $3.0M invested
Goal 2	College tuition for Ella: about $48,000 per year from August 2027
Goal 3	Home renovation: $60,000 in spring 2027
Client concern	"We feel too exposed to tech and chips after this year's swings."

Advisor notes from last meeting (June 2026): clients asked to review concentration in semiconductors, and whether the studio's rising costs put the renovation and tuition plans at risk.

2. Investment report (as of September 30, 2026)

Holding	Symbol	Shares	Cost basis	Market value	Weight	Q3 return
NVIDIA	NVDA	1,450	$118,900	$262,450	21.9%	+14.2%
Apple	AAPL	520	$93,600	$171,600	14.3%	+6.1%
Microsoft	MSFT	230	$82,800	$118,450	9.9%	+3.4%
Taiwan Semiconductor	TSM	330	$49,500	$79,200	6.6%	+11.8%
SPDR S&P 500 ETF	SPY	450	$238,500	$301,500	25.1%	+4.9%
iShares Core US Aggregate Bond	AGG	1,800	$176,400	$178,200	14.9%	+1.6%
Cash and money market	-	-	$88,000	$88,000	7.3%	+1.2%
Total			$847,700	$1,199,400	100%	+7.4%

Concentration: single-stock technology holdings (NVDA, AAPL, MSFT, TSM) are 52.7% of the portfolio. NVDA and TSM together are 28.5%, and TSM manufactures NVIDIA's chips, so both depend on the same supply chain.

Year to date: portfolio +16.9% vs. 60/40 benchmark +9.8%. Largest drawdown this year: -14.6% (April).

3. Harper Design Studio LLC: income statement

	FY2024	FY2025	Change
Revenue	$842,000	$931,000	+10.6%
Cost of services	$398,000	$452,000	+13.6%
Gross profit	$444,000	$479,000	+7.9%
Salaries and contractors	$214,000	$261,000	+22.0%
Software and subscriptions	$31,000	$47,000	+51.6%
Rent	$54,000	$58,000	+7.4%
Marketing	$22,000	$19,000	-13.6%
Operating income	$123,000	$94,000	-23.6%
Net income	$97,000	$72,000	-25.8%
Net margin	11.5%	7.7%	-3.8 pts

Revenue grew, but costs grew faster: operating income fell 23.6%. The owner's draw from the studio funds about one third of household spending.

4. Household cash flow (trailing 12 months to September 2026)

	Monthly average	12 months
Daniel's salary (after tax)	$13,400	$160,800
Studio owner's draw	$5,000	$60,000
Dividends and interest	$1,150	$13,800
Total inflows	$19,550	$234,600
Mortgage and housing	$6,200	$74,400
Living expenses	$7,100	$85,200
Insurance	$900	$10,800
401(k) and IRA contributions	$3,000	$36,000
Total outflows	$17,200	$206,400
Net cash flow	$2,350	$28,200

Upcoming needs: $60,000 renovation (spring 2027) and $48,000 tuition (August 2027) = $108,000 within 11 months. Cash on hand is $88,000; at the current net cash flow, about $26,000 more accumulates by August 2027.

If the studio's owner's draw falls by a third, as its 2025 profit did, net cash flow drops to about $680 per month.
